DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

1. By-law #2019-100, being a by-law respecting Development Charges on land within the Corporation of Norfolk County, is consistent with the Development Charges Act, 1997 (DCA) to recover the maximum allowable portions of growth-related capital costs.

2. A Development Charge is a fee charged to new development to finance the cost of new growth-related capital facilities and infrastructure, and are payable at the time of building permit issuance.

3. Development Charges provide a major source of funding for growth-related capital expenditures. Development Charges help to protect existing taxpayers from the burden of financing growth related capital expenditures.

4. Development Charges for Norfolk County are collected to finance investments in infrastructure for the following services:

- Roads and Related
- Fire Protection
- Parking
- Parks and Recreation
- Library
- General Government (Administration)
- Ambulatory
- Water
- Wastewater

**The information contained in this pamphlet is intended only as a guide, please consult By-law 2019-100 for additional detail and information.

The Treasurer of a municipality shall present to Council an annual statement relating to the Individual Reserve Funds established through the Development Charges By-law as outlined in O. Reg. 82/98, s. 12. The purpose of the annual statement is to provide Council and the public with a comprehensive review of the activity as it relates to these funds.

This statement must include:

- A description of the service for which the fund was established
- A summary of:
  - Opening and closing balances of the reserve funds
  - Major revenues sources and expenditures, including interest earned or paid on fund balances.
  - Year over year transactions for the credits in relation to the service or service category broken down by individual credit holder.
  - Any money borrowed from or repaid to the fund, including the reason for borrowing.
  - Source of funding for each project financed, in whole or in part, by development charges.
- Upon review and approval by Council, the statement will be posted for public viewing on the Norfolk County website.
